Defendants.)

Upon consideration of the motion by Defendant Seaton Insurance Company (“Seaton”) to dismiss Seaton’s crossclaim with prejudice (Ct. Rec. 247), the supporting premises, and any opposition thereto, the Court finds that the motion has merit. It is therefore

ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. It is further

ORDERED that Seaton’s crossclaim against co-defendants Lloyd’s of London and certain London Market Insurer’s is dismissed, with prejudice.

DATED this 5th of May, 2009.
